COMMERCIAL CLUB

Keeping Things Stirring. New Hitch on Hotel. Report for City Ownership Waterworks.

Dodge City's commercial club is keeping things on the move. It is pounding away a daily in a manner that is sure to count. The air is still filled with elevator prospects that are soaring low down, looking for a good place to light. The railroad committee is keeping informed, and will cling to the first thing that looks good.

The club has appointed Harry Taylor, as a special assistant secretary to list all lands where the owners want breaking done. Ford county ought to have 200,000 acres of new wheat lands put in cultivation this year. Tell Mr. Taylor what you want done and the club will find parties to do the work.

The water and light committee, after thoroughly canvassing the situation and feeling carefully of the pulse of public sentiment reported to the club Tuesday night, resumed flag that an election be held to vote upon the proposition of Dodge City building and operating a waterworks system. The committee furnished the club figures showing that the towns in Kansas that own their own water works systems have lower water rates to consumers than the towns that are at the mercy of private companies.

The committee has been instructed to obtain other figures necessary to a final decision regarding this movement, and is to report next Tuesday evening.

The matter of sewerage and pit paving was discussed and steps will be taken in that direction.

The latest hotel proposition is for a large building on the Garner corner, and this proposition is conditional upon a moderate bonus. A special committee was appointed to look after this hotel deal.

MADE THEM DIG UP.

Jacksonian Says That Ford County Attorney Passed the Hat.

Ellis Garton says: "L. A. Madison attended the revival services at the M. E. church Tuesday night, and evidently became very much impressed with the meeting—so much so, that he determined yesterday morning to do something religious and he went out and raised a collection of over $19. for the Methodist pastor."

The fact is that a few years ago Mr. Madison, then a minister, tried to reform Cimarron by holding a series of revivals. He knows from experience that it is a losing game in Cimarron and very naturally he had a feeling of compassion for the present pastor.

Carl C. Countryman

The entertainment given last Thursday evening in the Presbyterian church, by Carl C. Countryman, was most highly appreciated and rated by those who took it in. What is called the "tent scene," in the play of Julius Caesar, was unquestionably one of the finest interpretations of Shakespeare yet given in this place by any attempting to reproduce the great master's writings. His recitations from his own writings were very happy and taking with his auditors, as indeed, were all the numbers on his program. He is undoubtedly a very much better performer than he is an advertiser, as his bills convey a very erroneous impression of his work. The elocutionary grimaces and contortions shown in the pictures, occupied but a few moments of the time in showing simply what may be done in this line. Mr. Countryman would come with a decided advantage another time.

Larned Man Dies Here.

Ed Bartholomew, a land buyer from Larned, was taken off from No. 5, Saturday night, in a dying condition, and died shortly afterwards. He had had Bright's disease for some time, and his death was caused by a stimulant which he took before leaving Larned.

When the train left Larned, three men who were with him, noticed that he seemed drowsy and stupid, but paid no more attention to him, thinking that perhaps he had been drinking. He remained in a comatose condition until arriving here, and did not regain consciousness at all, and died, as before stated, shortly after being taken from the train.

Sunday morning, the body was shipped to Larned, where his wife and family reside.

GOES INTO BUSINESS

Chief Clerk Cady Purchases Interest in Home Furnishing Company.

The Home Furnishing Company's business in Dodge City will receive the personal attention of another strong man, Mr. John S. Cady, who has been chief clerk in Supt. Ayers' office, has bought the Russell & Crane interest in the Home Furnishing Company, and will devote his time to the business.

The company's store is one of the largest furniture and undertaking establishments in Kansas. It is under the able management of Mr. C. A. Hulpleu. Mr. Hulpleu and Mr. Cady are energetic, enterprising and reliable men, and with both of them giving their entire attention to the business, The Home Furnishing Company's store will no doubt grow even larger than it is at present.

Meistersingers Male Quartet.

The last number of the Midland Lyceum course is the superb "Meistersingers Male Quartet," a combination of musical performers, with a reader and crayon artist, that have been proving the popular attraction of the season, wherever appearing. Readers of the Chicago Lyceum will not have failed to notice that this combination has been scoring 100 at almost, or quite every appearance, and is nearly uniformly designated as among the attractions marked for re-engagement another season. The program is eminently in the popular line, with a variety suited to all classes of their auditors. It was the intention all the while to give this entertainment in the opera house, but owing to its coming too close to other attractions booked for that place, it will be transferred to the Presbyterian church, where ample room and extra seating provided, will accommodate all desiring to enjoy it. In place of the higher prices for admission contemplated, the popular prices of other attractions will be preserved, 35 cents for the center block, 25 cents for other parts of the house, and 15 cents for children. The company expects to be on hand to start on the program at 8:30 o'clock sharp. It is regarded as by far the superior attraction in the course of five that were engaged, and as ranking among the finest in the line, of any on the road. They come Thursday evening, February 15th.

GEO. ROLLER ACQUITTED.

No Evidence Formed to Sustain the Charge Made Against Him.

The case against George Roller, charging him with arson in setting fire to the barn of A. T. Davis, was concluded at 3:30 p. m., yesterday, resulting in the discharge of the defendant. Mr. A. T. Davis was the complaining witness, and the case came up before J. B. Naylor, justice of the peace, on a preliminary examination Tuesday. All of Tuesday afternoon was consumed in the examination of witnesses and at 5 p. m. in the court adjourned until yesterday morning at 9 o'clock County Attorney Hoover was assisted by J. T. Whitelaw, and L. A. Madison appeared for the defense.

The state introduced ten witnesses. The defense put no witness on the stand. The state failed to show that a crime had been committed, or that the defendant was in any way responsible for the fire.

While the consensus of opinion is that the burning of the Davis barn was the work of an incendiary, a dastardly deed, there was no evidence whatever, directly or indirectly, connecting Mr. Roller with the deed—Cimarron Jacksonian.

FUNERAL OF GEO. GINGRICH

Conducted at Presbyterian Church Monday, by Rev. Schrine.

The body of George Gingrich, killed accidentally at Los Angeles, California, last Thursday, was brought in on No. 8, Sunday night.

The funeral was held from the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon, Rev. B. H. Schries of the German Lutheran church, conducting the services. A choir composed of Mrs. Whitelaw, Mrs. Gardner, LeRoy Martin, P. H. Young, and Mrs. McCall, pianist, rendered several suitable selections. The body was laid to rest in the Grand Army cemetery.

A Modern Miracle.

"Truly miraculous seemed the recovery of Mrs. Mollie Host of this place," writes J. O. K. Hooper, Woodford, Tenn. "she was so wasted by coughing up pus from her lungs. Doctors declared her end so near that her family had watched her bed-side forty-eight hours; when, at my urgent request Dr. King's New Discovery was given her, with the astonishing result that improvement began, and continued until she finally completely recovered, and is a healthy woman to-day. Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 at Rath & Balbridge, Druggist. Trial bottle free.

Relatives B. J. Lewis.

Any relative living in Dodge City, of B. J. Lewis of Denver, please correspond with Mrs. F. W. Curtis, 3109 W. 29 Ave., Denver, Colo. Important.

Beats The Music Cure.

"To keep the body in tune," writes Mrs. Mary Brown, 20 Lafayette Place, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. "I take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are the most reliable and pleasant laxative I have found." Best for the Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Guaranteed by Rath & Balbridge, Druggist. 25c.

Limit of Bad Whisky.

The correspondent who writes wishing to learn when cider reaches the condition called "hard" is informed that all cider which is not vinegar, but which is unfit to drink on account of its rank and bitter taste, is hard cider—hard to swallow, because of its disagreeable flavor. The man who can become intoxicated on hard cider would drink himself to death on such whisky as is sold in Bangor to-day, and Bangor whisky is about the limit of badness.—Bangor News.

For Sale.

Thirteen head of brood and work mares for sale at Stone's feed and sale stable.

Woman Journalists.

In Paris some patient person has been collecting statistics about woman journalists. There are 600 of these, he declares, who live by Journalism in England, as against 2,193 in the United States and 1,200 in Germany. Of the latter 27 per cent deal with literature, 18 1/2 per cent with political economy, 10 per cent with pedagogy, 8 1/2 per cent with science, 7 1/2 per cent with fashions, 6 per cent with history, 4 1/2 per cent with domestic economy, 4 1/2 per cent with housing problems and 3 1/2 per cent with politics. The same statistician asserts that the incomes of these women vary from 1,000 francs ($300) to 6,000 francs ($1,500).

How to Best Acquire a Language. The best way to study a language and to learn its grammar is to begin with sentences, not with single words. The unit of speech is the sentence, and we cannot fix an exact meaning to a word until we see it in a sentence. . . . When once a sufficient number of sentences has been "assimilated," it will be easy to analyze them into their component parts, and to show the relations that these bear to one another.

CONTRACT GHOST

Appears and Clammers for a Promised Hotel Building.

Among other results of the hotel talk before the Dodge City Commercial Club a contract ghost has appeared. At a recent meeting of the club in the course of a hotel talk a member arose and stated that when lots 2, 4, and 6 on front street were transferred to Mr. Gluck by the board of County Commissioners it was a condition of the sale that a large hotel building would immediately be erected upon the lots.

When the talk came up, Commissioner Mayrath, who was a member of the board in 1899 when these lots were transferred, was present in the room. He was called upon to state whether or not such a condition was made a part of the sale. Mr. Mayrath stated that the board was induced to sell the lots to Mr. Gluck upon such a representation. The hotel building was to be built as a part of the condition.

A motion was then carried in the commercial club to lay the matter before the present board of county commissioners, with a request that they demand the fulfillment of the contract. At a meeting of the commissioners held on Tuesday the matter was brought before them and the board passed a resolution instructing the county attorney to investigate the matter. If there was such a contract steps will be taken to see that it is carried out, or the sale of the lots set aside.

LISTEN TO THIS

Frank Eldenour, agent for the Fruit Valley Nursery, of Hutchinson, Kansas. Frank's health is so poor that he cannot canvas from house to house and he requests his many friends and customers to call and see him at Doolittle's Billiard Parlor. He will make that his office until the first of April, commencing Tuesday, February 7, 1906, and if he is not in, leave word on the state, and he will call on you. This nursery has been very successful in Western Kansas, because their stock is naturalized to this climate. It is worth three times the value of any eastern nursery. And our prices are one half that of any eastern nursery. And don't you forget it that the ground is in better condition than it has been for years. I ask the farmers to call and see me. We pay all freight, and there is always a permanent agent here to adjust all complaints.

FOR PROBATE JUDGE.

I announce myself a candidate for the nomination for Probate Judge of Ford county subject to the action of the Republican county convention.

J. L. FINLEY.

On The Frontier.

"On the Frontier", which comes to the Gluck opera house on February 13, is said to be one of the strongest comedy dramas ever written. The scene is laid in California. The interest is intense from the beginning to the close. The story is woven around the life of the heroine "Juanita". Her sorrow, grit and pluck, her dashing personality, and radiant beauty is one of the most fascinating parts ever seen on the stage. The company is a fine one.

PUBLIC MEETING

Mr. Ashbaugh of Wichita Will Talk on Irrigation Saturday.

For some time the Commercial Club has been expecting to get Mr. S. S. Ashbaugh here for a talk on the subject of irrigation. Mr. Ashbaugh is particularly well informed upon the subject and its great possibilities in Western Kansas. It is a subject that has not been looked at in the right light. Many have considered it something which would be beneficial to a dry country only, and not something which will make a good country doubly so.

A talk on the practical side of this subject will be of benefit to all. The proposition is attracting the attention of capitalists all over the country.

The Commercial club wants to hear Mr. Ashbaugh talk upon this subject, and wants the farmers and everybody to hear him.

Come to town Saturday and attend the meeting. It will be held at the Eagles' club rooms at 2 o'clock.

Wondrous Power of Love.

Undoubtedly, as Ovid said ages ago, "Love is the perpetual source of fear and anxieties," yet, also, it is the root of the greatest earthly bliss which humanity can know. Moreover, without faith love cannot endure. True love always is enthusiastic; a love must idealize the beloved. It may well be, and probably is, that the man or woman thus idealized is neither better nor worse than a million others, and no amount of loving will make them angelic, saving in the eyes of love. But, mercifully for humanity, "There's nothing either good or bad, but thinking makes it so." And angels might be uncomfortable companions for ordinary men and women, "creatures far too bright and good for human nature's daily food."—Chicago Tribune.

For Probate Judge.

In this issue of the Globe Republican will be found the announcement of Mr. J. L. Finley for probate judge. Mr. Finley is well known to the people of Ford county. He has served in the past as probate judge of this county and is familiar with the work of the office. He has a long acquaintance in the county and his record in office to recommend him to the voters, and will ask the support of his friends to securing the nomination, which in his case would undoubtedly mean election as well.

This From a Scotchman?

James Meffry, a well known Scottish frontmaster and owner of race horses, once decided to run for parliament. He stood as candidate for Glasgow. He posed as an extreme radical, and was prepared to abolish everything in sight, as a short way to reform. At one of his meetings where the heckling of candidates was the feature, as in all Scottish elections, he was asked, after he had disposed summarily of the crown, the house of lords and most of the British constitution, whether he would abolish the decalogue. "Certainly," cried the valiant Merry. Then turning to his nearest neighbor on the platform he asked in an audible whisper, "Jock, what is thunder's the decalogue?"—New York Tribune.
